INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE, et al.,	)

Defendants.	)

ENTRY REGARDING PENDING MOTIONS

Pending before the Court are the parties’ motions for summary judgment. The Court is inclined to hold the motions in abeyance pending the Supreme Court’s ruling in King v. Burwell, a ruling which certainly will resolve some of the issues in this case and potentially could resolve most of them. If any party disagrees with this approach, that party shall file a notice setting forth (1) what issue(s) the party believes the Court should address at this time; and (2) why doing so would be an appropriate use of judicial resources.

SO ORDERED: 11/21/14

United States District Court
Southern District of Indiana
